CAN DO NOTHING BUT SUBMIT, IS BACA'S OPINION

Attorney Against Whom Disbarment Proceedings Are Entered Criticizes Action of Federal Judge.

That under the conditions he could do nothing but submit to the court was the statement this morning of Elfrido Baca, attorney of this city, against whom proceedings in disbarment were instituted by Federal Judge William H. Pope in Santa Fe Tuesday.

Mr. Baca criticized the court severely for including in his functions the offices of accuser and trial judge, and said that this was contrary to all practice.

"Now that Judge Pope has filed this order," said Mr. Baca, referring to the order to show cause why he should not be disbarred, "and proposed to hear the case himself, I can do nothing but submit myself to his mercy."

In filing the order in this way the court is proceeding contrary to all practice and common sense. He places the burden of proof upon me and not, as in the case of any accused person in criminal or civil law, on the accuser. I expect him to insist upon trying this case himself. He entered the order on his own motion and to my knowledge there have been no other papers entered in the case. What else can I do?

"Such a proceeding I have never heard of. But there is nothing for me to do but throw myself on the mercy of the court. I have proved—the jury has decided—that I am innocent of Sainz's escape; what more can I do?"

Mr. Baca pointed out that there were major differences between this action and other disbarment proceedings before the court.

STATE COLLEGE TELLS HOW TO GET BLACKLEG VACCINE FROM BUREAU

The current number of the press extension bulletin of the State Agricultural college contains the following data upon securing blackleg vaccine from the government:

Inquiries are received from time to time by the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts as to how vaccine for the prevention of blackleg can be secured promptly. The sixth revision of Circular No. 31, issued a few months ago by the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture, has the following to say on the subject:

"The distribution of blackleg vaccine will be continued by this bureau until further notice, and adequate measures have been taken to avoid all delay in sending the vaccine immediately on receipt of the application.

"It is advisable that all stock owners in infected districts should vaccinate their young stock regularly, without awaiting an outbreak of the disease as heavy losses may be sustained in the course of a few days.

"A regular application blank will be mailed to any stock owner who requests, although a letter stating the number of animals to be vaccinated will be treated as an application.

"A number of stock owners have obtained vaccine in excess of what they actually needed, simply to have it on hand in case they should want to use it. This practice has caused unnecessary work for this bureau, and, on the other hand, stock owners whose cattle were actually dying from blackleg had to wait on this account from two to three weeks, or even longer, before they could be supplied.

"It has therefore become necessary to require each stock owner who wishes to obtain vaccine from this bureau to certify on his honor that the number of doses of blackleg vaccine applied for by him are actually needed at the time the application is made, and that they will be used within four weeks after receipt, on his own cattle, or on cattle in which he is actually interested, or of which he is actually in charge.

"Attention is called to the rule that under no circumstances will blackleg vaccine be sent to any one person for distribution to others, except in the case of designated state officials or sanitary officers. Each stock owner should apply directly to this office for the amount of vaccine required for his own cattle, and this will in each case be sent to him direct.

"All applications for blackleg vaccine should be addressed as follows: Director of the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

In case of emergency the vaccine can be purchased from a few of the large drug concerns of Kansas City or farther east.

CONTINUANCE IS ASKED IN CASE OF MRS. WILLSON

Plaintiff Unable to Attend
When Cause Is Called for Trial This Morning in Federal Court; City Objects.

The jurors in federal court this morning were excused by Judge Pollock until 8:30 tomorrow morning, there being no cases ready for trial today.

In the case of Matilda Wilson vs. the City of Albuquerque, which came up for trial this morning, Attorney T. J. Mabry, representing Isaac Barth, counsel for the plaintiff, asked for a continuance of a few days on account of his client being sick in bed at her home in Pennsylvania and unable to be present.

City Attorney Thomas Wikerson objected to a continuance on the ground that counsel for Mrs. Wilson knew that she would be unable to attend and had not notified him of their intention to ask a postponement and that he had witnesses here for the trial, under expense. Judge Pollock allowed the counsel for the plaintiff until Monday to state whether or not they could proceed. If the case is postponed beyond this term of court the plaintiff must stand the costs.

Counsel for the defense in the case of the A. T. & S. F. vs. Stanley was unable to be present this morning and attorneys for the railroad asked a continuance until Saturday, which was granted, when Judge Pollock will hear the case without a jury. The action is a result of undercharges on freight for which the Santa Fe seeks restitution.

An order was entered bringing the Eastern railroad in as a party defendant in the case of William H. Parker vs. the Santa Fe and the trial of this case was set for Saturday.

In the case of Manuel Duran vs. the St. Louis, Rock Island & Pacific company, the court permitted counsel for the defendant to file a plea in bar.

Judge Pollock yesterday afternoon directed the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant in the Aragon vs. A. T. & S. F. case. Aragon asked $100 damages for injuries received while employed as a car inspector at Belen.

During the thirty-three years Brigadier Jordan has been a Salvationist he has traveled over 15,000 miles. He has worked among blacks and whites and orientals and thousands of men and women have learned to live better lives as the result of his work.

At Houndslow, where there were serious riots, the brigadier went for weeks with a military escort. The guard remained outside the homes where the brigadier went to pray or carry food or relief to the distressed. The active little brigadier knows many of the worst crooks in the western country. In him they have confidence when they reach the point where they had to have a friend to share their troubles. Hundreds of young women who have entered the life of a fallen woman have found the brigadier and his wife true friends. Some of the prison inmates of his work in the west are letters from young women who left restricted districts to enter good homes and who are now good women some with families.

Twenty-three years ago Brigadier and Mrs. Jordan went to the island of St. Helena where Napoleon died. For thirteen months he labored on this barren spot, with a tiny thousand colored folks, where a few government officials make their lonely home.

Fourteen years were spent in South Africa. The first appointment was at Grahamstown, commonly known as the City of Saints, and then to King William's Town in the heart of the Kaffir district. He organized colored corps as well as the white workers. He found that it was easier to get an audience among these colored people than among the whites. His next station was Port Elizabeth, where they used a hall made famous by Dr. Livingston. The next station was at Queenstown, South Africa, and then to gold mines in the Transvaal. The miners threw $169 on the drum in ten minutes. Cape Town was his next station and then to East London, Cape colony. He had been promoted to the rank of adjutant and soon became staff captain and divisional officer. After being three years in the eastern division he was sent to the western division. Ten years ago Brigadier Jordan came to Texas to take command of the army work in that state. He was next stationed at Milwaukee, where he had jurisdiction over a portion of Wisconsin and Illinois. He was transferred to Sacramento, California to Butte, Mont., as divisional officer, having jurisdiction over Montana and Idaho. He has recently been promoted to the rank of brigadier and commissioned to conduct special review meetings in the Rocky mountain states between the Canadian border and Old Mexico.

The brigadier will conduct a review campaign at the Salvation Army hall in this city from the 8th of February to the 11th. Further announcement will be made later.

The first session of the Congress will be held this evening.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD CONFERENCE WITH CHAIRMAN

John W. Wilson, chairman of the Republican city committee, has called a conference of Republicans to be held at his office tonight. It is understood that a score of workers in each ward have been invited to the meeting and that the political situation will be fully discussed, especially with regard to the city campaign.

Holm G. Burns and Charles A. Spies, prominent in Republican politics in the state, are in the city and they will probably drop into the meeting by invitation to greet the boys.

MYSTERY FOR THE HIGHLAND FIRE COMPANY

Excited Woman Phones Hurry-up Call, but No Blaze or Any Trace of One Is To Be Found.

After a vain search for a fire, the highland engine company returned to its house this morning with a mystery on its hands.

The alarm that called the company out was telephoned in by a woman. She was in a state of high excitement and was just about able to gasp that the company was needed and needed in a hurry in the 15-00 block on South Walter street. Assistant Chief Burnett got his men in action on the jump and the company hastened to South Walter street in as big a hurry as it could get up.

There was no sign of a fire in the whole neighborhood. There are not many houses there, and the men made a house-to-house search for a fire. They searched not only in the 15-00 block but two or three blocks around. If anyone in the neighborhood had a fire it was hidden under the bed or in the closet with the family skeleton and carefully concealed from sight. No one could be found who had the slightest idea of where a fire might have been or who the excited woman that called up was. Burnett finally gave it up and the company went back to the house.

CAREER OF NOTED EVANGELIST SHOWS QUANTITY OF WORK

From bar bay to noted Salvationist known from Cape Town, South Africa, of Calgary, Canada, and from New York to San Francisco is the record of Brigadier G. T. Jordan. Time and again this fearless Salvationist led a band of workers during the Salvation Army riots in England in the '80s. Today he carries scars which he received when fighting the brewers army in Hampshire in 1888, but it is his proud boast that the Salvationists never retreated when sticks and stones were hurled at them by a mob of 3,000 men.

During the thirty-three years Brigadier Jordan has been a Salvationist he has traveled over 15,000 miles. He has worked among blacks and whites and orientals and thousands of men and women have learned to live better lives as the result of his work.
